ICA Board welcomes two new directors

The Insurance Council of Australia (ICA) Board welcomed the appointments of Daniel Fogarty, CEO, General Insurance, Zurich Financial Services Australia, and Niran Peiris, Managing Director of Allianz Australia, at a meeting in Sydney yesterday.

Mr Fogarty and Mr Peiris filled open positions on the ICA Board following the resignations of Shane Doyle on June 30, 2012, and Terry Towell on December 31, 2012.

Chairing his first ICA Board meeting as incoming chairman and president, Mr Mark Milliner, CEO Personal Insurance for the Suncorp Group, welcomed Mr Fogarty and Mr Peiris.

“On behalf of the ICA Board I would like to welcome Daniel Fogarty and Niran Peiris. I look forward to working with them and their contribution to the work of the ICA,” he said.

“I expect the ICA Board to rise to the challenges ahead and continue its achievements of last year into 2013.”

These appointments bring the total number of Board members to 12. The current board members are:
