

News release

Insurance Council of Australia

Thursday, 14 March 2024

ICA Board welcomes Lloyd's Tracey Bryan as non-executive director

The Board of the Insurance Council of Australia (ICA) today announced incoming Lloyd's General Representative in Australia Tracey Bryan has been appointed a non-executive director of the ICA Board.

Tracey will replace outgoing Lloyd's representative Chris Mackinnon, who joined the ICA Board in 2017.

Tracey will hold the dual role of Lloyd's General Representative in Australia and Lloyd's Head of Regulatory Affairs & Compliance Asia Pacific from 1 April.

She joined Lloyd's in 2010 and has over 20 years' experience in the insurance industry having managed claims and dispute resolution teams, conduct risk, compliance, and legislative development.

Holding a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Arts from Monash University, Tracey commenced her legal career working as principal solicitor for a Community Legal Centre, before moving into insurance in 2001, holding various managerial roles at AAMI Insurance.

Tracey also serves as a Director on the Board of Lloyd's subsidiaries in Australia, Japan, Dubai and Lloyd's Branch Executive Committee in India. Tracey was also a member of the past two ICA Code Review Committees.

Quote attributable to ICA President Nick Hawkins

I welcome Tracey to the ICA Board as we bid farewell to Chris and wish him luck on his new role as Lloyd's Regional Director for Asia Pacific, Middle East and Africa.

Chris has contributed a wealth of experience and provided insights on the global insurance market and reinsurance solutions for a wide variety of risks.

We look forward to working with Tracey and to continue our valued relationship with Lloyd's.