ICA members appoint new non-executive director

The Board of the Insurance Council of Australia (ICA) has welcomed Youi Chief Executive Officer Nathaniel Simpson as a non-executive director of the ICA Board.

Mr Simpson leads the continued growth at Youi and prior to being appointed CEO in July 2023 held several executive roles at the insurer.

His career spans roles in the financial services industry in both Australia and South Africa, and he was recently the Co-Chair of the ICA's successful US study tour to Washington DC and California.

Mr Simpson fills the vacancy left by Chubb's Peter Kelaher, who was recently promoted to Division President of Continental Europe, Middle East and North Africa.

Quotes attributable to ICA President Nick Hawkins:

Nat has a breadth of knowledge and experience of the insurance industry and I am pleased to welcome him to the ICA Board.

I also want to take the opportunity to thank Peter Kelaher for his service to the Board over the past three years.

Peter's 20 years of industry experience has been of great benefit to the Board and we wish him all the best in his new role.

Quotes attributable to Youi CEO Nathaniel Simpson:

I am honoured to be appointed to the Insurance Council of Australia Board.

Youi has always been a strong advocate for consumer-centric practice and fair competition.

I look forward to working alongside the ICA Board, driving positive change and better outcomes for consumers across Australia.
